When I left PDQ, I went to WOAU-TV, and dropped off 200 copies of both of the forms on the preceding page (for John Klimkiewicz), as well as about 15 copies of the new CHS&M, Inc. stationery (shown above).
Then, I drove to Carbondale, where I watered the flower boxes in the downtown area. When that was over, I went out to the Golf Course & DWP and I "folded and stuffed" for about three hours, at the conclusion of which 205 copies of all the Clinton Griswold material on the preceding pages (07-29-1985-p.2-9, inclusive) were all set to go. I sealed the envelopes here, as it was getting late (10 P.M.)

and DWP had to get to bed. I was up late making sure that everything was OK; all that remain to be done now is to rubber stamp the CHS&M bulk rate permit on each envelope.

If you make a donation to the Statue of Liberty Restoration Fund, you apparently receive these free address stickers.

8 P.M.

WSP backed out of the garage in his Jeep and backed into my Renault. Awkward moment. WSP quickly offered to pay for all damages.
